

IN RE: HBT JV, LLC, et al.
CASE NO. 17-40659
FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS (FAQs)
NOTICE OF CHAPTER 11 BANKRUPTCY CASE and CLAIMS BAR DATE

1. What is the meeting of creditors?

- This meeting will be conducted by an attorney from the U.S. Trustee’s office. The US Trustee attorney will ask a representative of HBT questions about its assets and liabilities.

2. Do I (or creditors) need to attend the meeting of creditors?

- No, creditors are not required to attend the meeting of creditors, although it is open to the public. Attendance at the creditors’ meeting does not impact your standing as a potential creditor.

3. What is the “Bar Date”?

- A “Bar Date: is a deadline set by the Bankruptcy Court for filing a Proof of Claim against HBT in its Chapter 11 case. Here, it is Thursday, July 20, 2017.

4. How do I file a claim?

- If you believe you have a claim against HBT that arose prior to the Chapter 11 filing on February 20, 2017, you may submit a Proof of Claim form. The instructions for when and how to file a Proof of Claim are on the Notice of Chapter 11 Bankruptcy Case that was sent to you.

5. Why did I receive a notice of the creditors’ meeting? Does this mean that I have a claim?

- The Bar Date Notice was sent to all persons and entities that have previously done business with HBT.
- Receipt of a Bar Date Notice does not necessarily mean you have a claim, but you will need to determine whether you hold a claim against HBT and whether you will need to file a Proof of Claim. Please refer to the Notice for information on this issue.

6. Where can I go for more information?

- Certain pleadings in the case are maintained on our dedicated restructuring website at www.jndla.com/cases/hbt. You can also review pleadings filed in this case online or at the Bankruptcy Clerk’s Office during business hours, as provided in the Notice sent to you.
- Neither the Debtor, its legal counsel nor JND are permitted to provide you with legal advice. It is recommended you seek your own legal counsel.

7. What will happen to my warranty?

- Warranties are the issued by third-parties (rather than by HBT), so we expect that warranty claims will continue in the same manner as before the bankruptcy filing.
