TRAVIS VANDELL OF JND LEGAL ADMINISTRATION RECOGNIZED IN 2017 PEOPLE TO WATCH REPORT BY TURNAROUNDS & WORKOUTS

SEATTLE and DENVER, April 13, 2017 — Turnaround & Workouts, the Beard Group newsletter published for the corporate restructuring industry, recognized Travis Vandell, CEO of JND Corporate Restructuring, a division of JND Legal Administration, in its 2017 People to Watch Special Report featuring business professionals making their mark. Travis is the only claims and noticing professional included in this year's People to Watch Report.

"Turnaround & Workouts People to Watch recognizes achievements of business professionals, other than attorneys, in the restructuring field in 2016 and 2017, who have not heretofore received a great deal of recognition," comments Joseph Cardillo of the Beard Group. "We have great hope for future endeavors by Travis and other accomplished honorees as they continue their careers within the restructuring industry."

Throughout his career spanning nearly two decades, Travis has been dedicated to streamlining and simplifying the administrative aspects of corporate bankruptcy for companies and their legal and financial professionals with innovative strategies and technology applications. Currently as CEO of JND Corporate Restructuring, Travis oversees business development and operations for corporate restructuring services in the Denver office of JND Legal Administration, which is headquartered in Seattle. During the past year at JND, he has focused extensively on administering cases within the energy, healthcare and retail sectors based on the upward trend of corporate bankruptcy filings within these industries.

Prior to his current role, Travis co-founded UpShot Services, a claims and noticing firm, where he and co-founder Robert Klamser created progressive, proprietary technology enabling clients to manage claims and noticing functions more efficiently. In 2016, UpShot Services was acquired by JND Legal Administration. Previously, Travis was a senior managing consultant at a leading claims and noticing firm where he led a number of prominent Chapter 11 cases and was a contributing member of the business development team.
