

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

UPSHOT SERVICES, LLC CHANGES NAME TO JND CORPORATE RESTRUCTURING

Client Engagements to Continue Uninterrupted with Same Client Service Teams and Full Access to Case-Specific Web Sites

SEATTLE, Dec. 21, 2016 - JND Legal Administration, a management and administration company delivering service lines in corporate restructuring, class action, mass tort, government services and eDiscovery, announced the rebranding and name change of UpShot Services LLC to JND Corporate Restructuring. JND Legal Administration acquired the leading claims and noticing agent based in Denver, Colo. in March to create a new corporate restructuring division. With the name change, clients will continue their engagements with the same client service teams and uninterrupted access to case-specific web sites.

“As UpShot Services has become an invaluable part of our growing portfolio of services, we’ve officially renamed and rebranded the company and its web site to better position it as the corporate restructuring division under the JND Legal Administration umbrella,” comments Neil Zola, executive co-chairman and founder of JND Legal Administration. “Our clients will continue to benefit from the top-tier technology-driven claims and noticing services and expertise delivered by our team.”

UpShot Services was founded by seasoned industry professionals, Travis Vandell and Robert Klamser, who pioneered a new standard of efficiency to serve the administrative needs of companies in corporate bankruptcy. They established the firm to help debtors and their professionals to navigate the intricacies of claims, noticing, balloting and other corporate bankruptcy milestones with easy-to-use, scalable technology and industry expertise. Following its acquisition, Vandell and Klamser were appointed as JND Corporate Restructuring’s CEO and president, respectively. They also serve on the board of directors for JND Corporate Restructuring with the founders of JND Legal Administration, Jennifer Keough, Neil Zola and David Isaac.

“When we originally founded UpShot Services, our goal and vision was to serve the administrative needs of companies in corporate restructuring with innovative technology-based tools and industry expertise,” comments Travis Vandell, CEO of JND Corporate Restructuring. “We achieved that goal, and now under our new name, JND Corporate Restructuring, we are able to deliver the same high caliber services while reaching new goals.”
