

JND LEGAL ADMINISTRATION NAMED #1 CLASS ACTION CLAIMS ADMINISTRATOR BY THE NATIONAL LAW JOURNAL

JND Makes the National Law Journal Best of 2022 Hall of Fame

SEATTLE – April 4, 2022 – JND Legal Administration (JND), the U.S. leader in legal administration services, has again been named the nation’s #1 Class Action Claims Administrator by The National Law Journal (NLJ) in its 11th annual ‘Best Of’ supplement. Having placed in this award category three times in the last four years, JND has the additional honor of being listed in the NLJ Best of 2022 Hall of Fame.

JND was founded by Jennifer Keough, Neil Zola and David Isaac in 2016 and was named #1 Class Action Claims Administrator in the country by the National Law Journal in its very first year of operation. The company now staffs more than 300 employees across four offices, including its 35,000 square-foot headquarter office and operations center in Seattle.

Routinely selected by attorneys on both sides of the aisle as well as by government agencies and Fortune 500 companies to handle large and complex class action administrations, JND is the settlement administrator for the $2.67 billion Blue Cross Blue Shield Antitrust Settlement and the Equifax Data Breach Settlement, the largest data breach settlement in history, among hundreds of other recent matters.

“We are proud to have been selected once again as the nation’s top class action administration firm by the readers of the National Law Journal,” says Keough, CEO of JND. “And we are grateful to our clients for continuing to trust us to handle their most complex matters.”

This is the fifth time in seven years that JND has been recognized as Best Class Action Claims Administrator in the U.S. by NLJ. JND has also ranked in ALM Media-administered regional programs, including Best of the Midwest, Best of New York Law Journal, Best of New Jersey Law Journal and Best of Texas Lawyer, for providing exceptional legal management and class action administration services.
